

Financial Aid Consortium Agreement

Community College of Rhode Island is the Home Institution Where You Are Pursuing a Degree

1. Financial Aid can only be received at one institution per semester.
2. Students who wish to utilize financial aid received at CCRI to pay for classes taken at another institution, must complete a Consortium Agreement and provide proof of enrollment at the HOST institution to the Community College of Rhode Island Financial Aid Office.
3. Tuition payment arrangements must be made with the HOST Institution. Financial aid funds paid by the Community College of Rhode Island for consortium classes will not be available for 30 days after the start of the Community College of Rhode Island semester.
4. The Community College of Rhode Island Financial Aid Standards of Academic Progress apply for classes taken at HOST Institutions through a consortium agreement.
5. At the end of the semester, you must request an academic transcript for classes taken at the HOST Institution be sent to the Community College of Rhode Island. A hold will be placed on your account until the official transcript is received. These transcripts must be received before future financial aid can be awarded at the Community College of Rhode Island.
6. The Community College of Rhode Island will only pay for courses that are required for the student's current program of study.

Deadline: The Consortium Agreement must be completed and approved within 30 days from the first day of classes for the current term at the Community College of Rhode Island.
